Fauquier Habitat Launches Online Habitat ReStore

Warrenton, Va. – Fauquier Habitat For Humanity is combining Black Friday with community support, unveiling its online ReStore. The ReStore opened for business this morning at www.fauquierhabitatrestore.com.

A Habitat ReStore accepts donations of new or gently used home improvement items and sells them to the public at a fraction of the retail price. Besides offering products to the public at unbeatable prices, the ReStore also offers local builders and others an easy way to recycle products and materials. The launch of the Online ReStore will provide an opportunity for the public to purchase items immediately via the shopping site and then pick them up on a by-appointment basis.

“ReStore programs are staples of local Habitat For Humanity chapters around the country,” said Fauquier Habitat For Humanity Executive Director Brenda Drerenberger. “We’re excited to launch the online store as a way to get the program going here in our area while we continue to move towards opening a traditional, walk-in retail location.”

The ReStore’s proceeds will support Fauquier Habitat’s building projects throughout Fauquier County, as well as cover the minimal administrative costs of the affiliate.
